Edappadi K Palaniswami will be AIADMK's chief ministerial candidate: OPS

CM announces 11-member steering committee for 2021 assembly election

Chennai, Oct 7: Chief Minister Edappadi K Palaniswami will be AIADMK's chief ministerial candidate for the Tamil Nadu 2021 Assembly polls.

At the meeting held at AIADMK headquarters Deputy CM and AIADMK co-ordinator O Panneerselvam announced that the Edappadi K Palaniswami will be their Chief Minister face of the polls scheduled for next year.

AIADMK coordinator Panneerselvam said: "I am happy to announce that our dear brother Palaniswami will be the victorious Chief Ministerial candidate of the AIADMK for the 2021 Assembly elections." The decision has been taken unanimously in consultations led by party president chairman E Madusudan, he said.

Apart from him, Palaniswami, party deputy coordinators K P Munusamy, R Vaithilingam and members of the Steering Committee have unanimously resolved to nominate Palaniswami as the AIADMK's Chief Ministerial candidate, he announced amid a thunderous applause.

The much awaited

twin announcements have brought the curtain down on speculations over the CM candidate of the ruling party and ended intra-party differences over setting up the panel.

Earlier, the Chief Minister announced the composition of an eleven-member Steering Committee.

Forest Minister Dindigul C. Sreenivasan, Power Minister P Thangamani, Local Administration

Minister S P Velumani, Food Minister R Kamaraj, Law Minister C Ve Shanmugam, Fisheries Minister D Jayakumar, former Minister P Mohan, former MPs P H Manoj Pandian and R Gopalakrishnan, former MLA J.C.D. Prabhakar, and Sholavandan legislator Manickam are the members of panel, which will guide the party on all matters.

Meanwhile, Deputy Chief Minister O Panneerselvam said: "As the resolution passed in the general body meeting our Chief Minister announced the 11 member names of the steering committee and I wish them all!"

"Our party is found

A farmer to CM

At the historical meeting held at AIADMK headquarters today, Deputy Chief Minister O. Panneerselvam announced that Chief Minister Edappadi K Palaniswami will be AIADMK's chief ministerial candidate for the Tamil Nadu 2021 Assembly polls amidst thunderous applause.

Edappadi K. Palaniswami, has been a staunch loyalist of All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (AIADMK) supremo Jayalalitha since the time she entered active politics in the 1980s.

Hailing from the rural Nedungulam village in Edappadi taluk, 66-year-old Palaniswami joined AIADMK in the 1980s. He threw his weight behind Jayalalitha when the party suffered a split after the demise of founder M.G. Ramachandran in 1987.

by MG Ramachandran in name of Anna. And it is a party movement and nobody has won three times. Our Amma led the party with the same path of MGR. His dreams of party and government should be with cadres. We are doing it now," he said.

Party workers had gathered at the AIADMK headquarters in Chennai in anticipation of the announcement.

On October 1, Tamil Nadu Minister D Jayakumar had sought to play down reports of differences between Chief Minister E Palaniswami and Deputy Chief Minister O Panneerselvam, saying that there are no differences between the two.

On reports that Panneerselvam earlier skipped the meeting called by the Chief Minister and met party members, he said, "He is our party organisation coordinator, so what is the problem if he meets party members. There could be many reasons for not attending the Chief Minister's meeting, like meeting medical experts etc. But please don't link it to politics."

The debate around the Chief Minister post candidate should be considered settled now with most of the leaders agreeing with the final outcome "as of now" to Palaniswami as a candidate for 2021 elections.

Later Chief Minister and Chief Minister candidate for 2021 Assembly election Edappadi Palaniswami along with Deputy Chief Minister O. Panneerselvam and ministers, AIADMK office bearers paid respects at the MGR and Jayalalitha's samadhis in Marina.

India seeks rules-based world order at Quad meet

New Delhi, Oct. 7: In the midst of growing global concern over China's expansionist behaviour, India on Tuesday said it remained committed to a rules-based world order, respect for territorial integrity and sovereignty and peaceful resolution of disputes.

In his opening remarks at a ministerial meeting of the Quadrilateral coalition or 'Quad' in Tokyo, External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar said advancing security and economic interests of all countries having legitimate and vital interests in the Indo-Pacific remained a key priority.

The in-person meeting of the foreign ministers of the 'Quad' comprising India, the US, Japan and Australia is taking place in the backdrop of China's aggressive military behaviour in the Indo-Pacific, South China Sea and along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in eastern Ladakh.

Besides Jaishankar, the meeting is being attended by US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, Australian Foreign Minister Marise Payne and Japan's Toshimitsu Motegi.

"As vibrant and pluralistic democracies with shared values, our nations have collectively affirmed the importance of maintaining a free, open and inclusive Indo-Pacific," Jaishankar said.

"We remain committed to upholding the rules-based international order, underpinned by the rule of law, transparency, freedom of navigation in the international seas, respect for territorial integrity and sovereignty and peaceful resolution of disputes," he said.

The evolving situation in the Indo-Pacific region in the wake of China's increasing military muscle flexing has become a major talking point among leading global powers in the last few years. The US has been favouring making Quad a security architecture to check China's growing assertiveness.

In his address, Jaishankar also said that it was a matter of satisfaction that the Indo-Pacific concept has gained increasingly wider acceptance.

Trump imposes new curbs on H-1B visas, Indian IT pros in trouble

Washington, Oct 7: The Trump administration has announced new restrictions on H-1B nonimmigrant visa programme which it said is aimed at protecting American workers, restoring integrity and to better guarantee that H-1B petitions are approved only for qualified beneficiaries and petitioners, a move which is likely to affect thousands of Indian IT professionals.

The interim final rule announced by the Department of Homeland Security on Tuesday, less than four weeks ahead of the US presidential election, will narrow the definition of specialty occupation as Congress intended by closing the overbroad definition that allowed companies to game the system.

It will also require companies to make real offers to real employees, by closing loopholes and preventing the displacement of the American workers. And finally, the new rules would enhance the department's ability to enforce compliance through worksite inspections and monitor compliance before, during and after an H-1B petition is approved.

The H1B visa is a non-immigrant visa that allows US companies to employ foreign workers in speciality occupations that require theoretical or technical expertise.

The technology companies depend on it to hire tens of thousands of employees each year from countries like India and China. The Interim Final rule, it said, will improve the accuracy of prevailing wages paid to foreign workers by bringing them in line with the wages paid to similarly employed US workers.

Venkaiah greets RAF personnel on 28th raising day

New Delhi, Oct 7: Vice President M Venkaiah Naidu today greeted personnel of the Rapid Action Force on the organisation's 28th raising day.

The Rapid Action Force is part of the Central Reserve Police Force created specially to deal with riots and riot-like situations. It has 15 battalions. "I extend my best wishes to the brave hearts of Rapid Action Force on 28th RAF anniversary. The impeccable history of the force is laden with courage, excellence and devotion to duty," the Vice President Secretariat tweeted quoting Naidu.

Rahul says Modi keen only on protecting his image

Patiala, Oct. 7: Prime Minister Narendra Modi is "not bothered" about what is happening in the country and he only "protects his image", Congress leader Rahul Gandhi said on Tuesday as he attacked the Centre on the new farm laws.

Gandhi was in Punjab as part of his three-day 'Kheti Bachao Yatra', during which he held a series of tractor rallies, to protest against the three new agriculture-related laws, which, he claimed, will not only affect farmers but also consumers.

The Centre has asserted that the laws will be beneficial for farmers and increase their income.

Claiming that several institutions, including the media, that protect the voice of the people have been "captured" by the BJP-led Centre, Gandhi said, "Give me free press and institutions which are free, this government will not last for long." The Prime Minister does not understand these farm laws, the Congress leader alleged on the final day of his yatra in Punjab and dared Modi to come to the state and stand with farmers if these new legislations were in the interest of the farming community.

Gandhi also raised the Ladakh standoff issue while addressing the media here.

He claimed that Modi had said no one "snatched" India's land. Then how was "1,200 square km" taken away by China, the Congress leader asked without substantiating his claim.

"They talk of 'Bharat Mata', but Narendra Modi gave 1,200 square km of 'Bharat Mata' to China to protect his image. It is a reality," he alleged.

Gandhi suggested that the media should call the Prime Minister to a press conference and talk to him openly. To a question on a weak Opposition in the country, Gandhi said the Opposition functions within a framework that includes the media, the judicial system and institutions that protect the voice of the people.

"In India, this entire framework that protects the voice of the people has been captured. The entire architecture has been captured and then to say that the opposition is weak is not a correct statement," he said.

"Give me a free press and institutions that are free, this government will not last long," Gandhi said.

The BJP-led government at the Centre has captured the "soul" of the country, he said and accused it of destroying the food security system with the three "black laws".

Jaishankar holds bilateral talks with Pompeo in Tokyo

New Delhi, Oct. 7: External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar on Tuesday held talks with US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo in Tokyo, focusing on key bilateral and regional issues and resolving to work together to advance peace and security in the Indo-Pacific and around the globe.

Jaishankar and Pompeo are in Tokyo to attend a ministerial meeting of the Quad or Quadrilateral coalition comprising India, the US, Australia and Japan.

It is learnt that both Jaishankar and Pompeo appraised each other about all major issues including security-related concerns in their first face-to-face meeting in seven months though they held a number of telephonic conversations during the period.

"Began my Tokyo visit with a bilateral meeting with @SecPompeo. Pleased to see the progress of our partnership in so many fields. Will work together for stability and prosperity in the Indo-Pacific," Jaishankar tweeted.

It is understood that India's festering row with China in eastern Ladakh figured in the meeting. However, there is no official confirmation about it.

A readout by the US State Department said Pompeo and Jaishankar discussed ongoing bilateral and multilateral cooperation on topics of international concern, and looked forward to the US-India two-plus-two ministerial dialogue later this year.

"They reaffirmed the strength of the United States-India relationship, reviewed our efforts to combat the COVID-19 pandemic, and asserted the need to work together to advance peace, prosperity, and security in the Indo-Pacific and around the globe," it said.

It said both Pompeo and Jaishankar agreed to continue close cooperation on a full range of regional and international issues.

The external affairs minister also called on Japanese Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga along with his counterparts from the US, Japan and Australia.

About the meeting with Suga, the external affairs minister said he mentioned the bilateral and global dimensions of special partnership between the two countries.

"Called on PM @sugawitter along with other Quad Foreign Ministers. Spoke about the bilateral and global dimensions of our special partnership," he said.

The meeting between Jaishankar and Pompeo comes at a time both India and the US are at loggerheads with China. In November 2017, the four countries gave shape to the long-pending proposal of setting up the "Quad" to develop a new strategy to keep the critical sea routes in the Indo-Pacific free of any influence.

Senator flays Trump as another aide tests positive

Bangor (Maine)/ Washington, Oct. 7: Republican Senator Susan Collins said she was shocked to see President Donald Trump discharged from the hospital so soon, and said Trump set a poor example by appearing at the White House without a mask.

When I saw him on the balcony of the White House, taking off his mask, I couldn't help but think that he sent the wrong signal, given that he's infected with COVID-19 and that there are many people in his immediate circle who have the virus," she said on Tuesday.

I did not think that was a good example at all. The White House is now a coronavirus hotspot, with both the president and first lady having contracted the virus, along with others in their inner circle.

Collins has been critical of Trump's handling of the coronavirus pandemic before, calling his performance extremely uneven. She's running against Democrat Sara Gideon, the Maine House speaker, in one of the most competitive Senate races in the country, one of a handful that could decide whether Republicans keep control of the U.S. Senate. It's the costliest political race in state history. Meanwhile, Stephen Miller, a top aide to President Donald Trump, tested positive for COVID-19, taking the number of White House staffers infected by the deadly virus to at least 10.

"Over the last five days I have been working remotely and self-isolating, testing negative every day through yesterday. Today, I tested positive for COVID-19 and am in quarantine," Miller said in a statement.

President Trump, along with First Lady

Melania Trump, tested positive for coronavirus last Thursday, soon after it was known that their close aide Hope Hicks contracted the infection.

Trump was admitted to a military hospital on Friday and was discharged on Monday.

White House Press Secretary Kayleigh McEnany and three of the staff from the press office also tested positive. At least three journalists working at the White House tested positive for the infection.

On Tuesday, the White House issued an updated guideline on health and safety of the residence staff.

"With the recent positive results of the President and First Lady, staff will wear full PPE and continue to take all necessary precautions, which include updated procedures to protect against cross contamination," it said.

PM stresses on preserving wildlife & biodiversity of India

New Delhi, Oct. 7: India's developmental needs are paramount but wildlife and biodiversity are equally imperative, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Tuesday.

In his message to the nation to mark the celebration of the ongoing Wildlife Week, the Prime Minister said India's commitment to wildlife protection and conservation is strong.

"Wildlife conservation is ingrained in our ethos and has always been an integral part of our tradition and culture. Our holy Constitution also enshrines this philosophy by including conservation of forest and wildlife as one of the fundamental duties of every Indian.

"India harbours 17 per cent of world population within 2.4 per cent land area of the world. Developmental needs of the country are paramount. However, we believe wildlife and biodiversity conservation are equally imperative," Modi said in a written message.

He said that with a robust and wide network of protected areas, the country's commitment to words wildlife protection is as strong as ever.

"Eco-sensitive zones provide a peripheral support and act as a buffer around national parks and sanctuaries. Taking great strides in this direction, several such zones have been notified to enhance the space availability for thriving wildlife," Modi said.

He said India remains a natural home to a variety of migratory species and for this reason, Gandhinagar declaration, which was adopted during the 13th Conference of Parties to Convention on Migratory Species in February this year, prioritised the integration of the concept of ecological connectivity into the 'Post 2020 Global Biodiversity Framework'.

"We are emphasising on the conservation of migratory birds and marine species," he said.

Prime Minister Modi also took pride in India being home to wild Asiatic lions and tigers, saying the result of the concerted efforts of the nation in conserving wildlife are showing.

"Our country hosts the last wild population of Asiatic lions. It also possesses the distinction of having the highest number of tigers in the world. The result of the concerted efforts of the nation towards conserving our wildlife are showing. The resolve of doubling tiger numbers has been fulfilled. We have achieved this target well in advance.

Govt appoints Dinesh Kumar Khara as SBI chairman

New Delhi, Oct 7: The government on Tuesday appointed SBI's senior-most Managing Director Dinesh Kumar Khara as the chairman of the country's largest lender.

He replaces Rajnish Kumar, who completed his three-year term on Tuesday.

The central government appoints Dinesh Kumar Khara as chairman of State Bank of India (SBI) for a period of three years with effect from the date of his taking over charge of the post on or after October 7, 2020 or until further orders, whichever is earlier, according to a notification issued by the Finance Ministry.

Dinesh Kumar Khara

Last month, the Banks Board Bureau (BBB) had recommended Khara as the next chairman of SBI. As per convention, the SBI chairman is appointed from a pool of serving managing directors at the bank. Interestingly, Khara was among the contenders for the chairman's post in 2017 as well. Khara was appointed as managing director of SBI in August 2016 for a three-year term. He got a two-year extension in 2019 after review of his performance.

An alumnus of the Faculty of Management Studies, Delhi University, Khara heads the Global Banking division of SBI. He holds a board-level position and supervises the businesses of SBI's non-banking subsidiaries.

Prior to being appointed managing director, he was the MD and CEO of SBI Funds Management Pvt Limited (SBIMF).

Khara, who joined SBI in 1984 as a Probationary Officer, was instrumental in merging five associate banks and Bharatiya Mahila Bank with SBI effective April 2017.

Trump and the Virus..!

With half of America rooting for the virus, in Trump, and the other half cursing the virus for attacking Trump, the Virus I soon found was nearly having a nervous breakdown. "Interview the Virus!" my editor barked to me without even looking up from his desk. I blinked for a second, because this was indeed as formidable as asking me to talk to St George's dragon, so with fear and trepidation, I went and stood at the gates of the White House and found the Virus. It was nothing like what I had imagined, "I don't know what to do!" wept the Virus, staring at me balefully, "I thought I'd got a prize catch in getting the world's most powerful man. I thought I would be the envy of all my brother and sister Viruses but they only look at me with pity!"

"What exactly is the matter?" I asked, "After all he's just another human, and all you have to do is do what you've done to everyone!"

"That's what I thought!" cried the Virus.

"I guess getting on to the President of the United States is no ordinary thing!" I admitted, "You'll need to use a different strategy from our ordinary mortals!"

"That's not the point!" moaned the Virus.

"What then is the point?" I asked impatiently, "You've got the world in panic, by jumping his mouth and nose, through the throat and into the lungs, so what's different?"

"He's got me!" moaned the Virus. "Got you?" I asked.

"Yes!" whispered the Virus, "Did you see the debate with Biden? Did you see what he did throughout the time, even when it was not his turn to speak?"

"Yes," I said, "He snorted, interrupted, interjected, threatened and hmphed the whole time on air!"

"And that," said the Virus, "Is what he does all the time! I'm stuck in his mouth, and thrown from one side of his jaw to the other, then onto his canines, nearly chewed by his molars and am exhausted trying to just survive!"

"Why don't you just get out?" I asked.

"How?" asked the Virus, weeping, "He's started wearing a mask! All these months, he didn't and that's how I was able to jump in. Now he's got himself a fancy one, that has literally made me a prisoner!"

I wished the Virus goodbye from the White House gates and made my way back to the editor, "How's the Virus?" he asked, "Finally giving Trump a run for his billions? Hey, what are you writing?"

"An obituary notice!" I said.

"For Trump?" asked my editor, "That's quite a scoop!"

"No," I said, "for the Virus, it's being infected by the same mouth that has contaminated the Proud Boys, the Ku Klux Klan and all the followers of the White House patient..!"

Amazon to host 'Great Indian Festival' from Oct 17

Chennai, Oct 7: E-commerce giant Amazon on Tuesday said it will host its "Great Indian Festival" from October 17 onwards with emphasis on enabling small and medium businesses to sell more this festive season.

Unlike previous years, Amazon, in has not provided a specific end-date for the sale event saying its a "month-long celebration" that will coincide with the festive season from Dusshera to Diwali, and will see participation from over 6.5 lakh sellers. Prime members to get 24 hours early access starting October 16.

Amazon rival Flipkart is slated to host its annual "The Big Billion Days" sale from October 16-21. "This year's Great Indian Festival is an opportunity for our sellers and partners to reach millions of customers across the country. Our sellers are excited and expect this to help them in accelerating their business. For our customers, our aim is to help them find everything they need during the festive season and deliver it safely to them," Amazon India Vice President Manish Tiwary said in a virtual briefing.

Tiwary said the sale is also important as it will provide lakhs of Small and Medium Businesses (SMBs) an opportunity to offer unique selection to customers, helping them rebuild and accelerate their business in tough times.

Customers across the country can buy these products under various programmes such as Local Shops, Amazon Launchpad, Amazon Saheli, and Amazon Karigar, he added.

Amazon India has partnered with HDFC Bank to offer finance options to customers. Tiwary said Amazon India has ramped up its delivery infrastructure adding close to 200 delivery stations.

LIC HFL disburses Rs 2,115 cr subsidy to over 1 lakh CLSS customers

Mumbai, Oct 7: Leading mortgage lender LIC Housing Finance has disbursed Rs 2,115 crore worth of subsidies to its customers under the credit-linked subsidy scheme (CLSS) as part of PM Awas Yojana since its inception in 2017, a top company official said.

Under this scheme, the second-largest mortgage player has disbursed more than Rs 12,000 crore of affordable housing loans to 1,01,521 borrowers till September-end, Siddhartha Mohanty, the managing director and chief executive of LIC Housing Finance.

SBI, the nation's largest lender and also the largest home loan lender, leads the scheme by a wider margin, though.

"We have disbursed Rs 2,115 crore in home loan subsidies to our customers eligible for the CLSS under the PM Awas Yojana since its inception in 2017 and up to the end of September. The amount has been disbursed to 1,01,521 borrowers. Total loan disbursed under this scheme is over Rs 12,000 crore, making us the second largest lender under this scheme," Mohanty said.

The credit-linked subsidy scheme for the middle income group was initially launched in 2017 for a year. Since then it has been extended many times to end in March 2020. But following the pandemic it was extended up to March 2021 in May this year as part of the booster measures.

The MIG families comprise two slabs-- those with annual income of Rs 6-12 lakh called MIG-I, and those with Rs 12-18 lakh are in the MIG-II slab.

The MIG-I borrowers get interest discount of 4 per cent from the government and can borrow up to Rs 9 lakh and the MIG-II borrowers who can borrow up to Rs 12 lakh, get the interest discount of at 3 per cent for the entire tenor of the loan.

The CLSS is part of the 2015, scheme for urban poor to help build a home under the PM Awas Yojana, envisaging affordable housing for all by 2022.

Initially the scheme was meant for the economically weaker section or lower income group households with an annual income of Rs 3-6 lakh.

Despite the pandemic hitting its business, LIC HFL reported a net income of Rs 817.48 crore in the June quarter. Its net interest income rose only 3 per cent to Rs 1,220.61 crore and total income rose 4 per cent to Rs 5,003.71 crore. Its outstanding loan portfolio stood at Rs 2,09,817 crore, up 6 per cent.

During the quarter its disbursements plunged to Rs 3,560 crore from Rs 10,261 crore. Of this, disbursement in individual home loan segment were Rs 3,034 crore taking the total outstanding to Rs 1,95,176 crore, up 6 per cent, as against Rs 7,871 crore, while project loans were Rs 159 crore compared to Rs 829 crore taking the total to Rs 14,641 crore.

On the moratorium accounts, Mohanty said it is 25 per cent of the book, of which individual loans accounted for 16 per cent for which it has made a provisional provision of Rs 2,668.89 crore for the June quarter.

Union Minister opens facilities of Torrent Gas

Chennai, Oct 7: Union Minister for Petroleum & Natural Gas and Steel, Dharmendra Pradhan through a Video Conference from Delhi, dedicated 42 CNG stations and 3 City Gate Stations (CGS) of Torrent Gas to the service of the community. The CNG stations are located across various states, including 14 in Uttar Pradesh, 8 in Maharashtra, 6 in Gujarat, 4 in Punjab and 5 each in Telangana and Rajasthan. The City Gate Stations include one each in Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra and Punjab.

With the completion of these 42 CNG stations, Torrent Gas has achieved a major milestone of commissioning 100 CNG stations, within a short span of time.

Torrent Gas, which has the authorisation to lay City Gas Distribution (CGD) network in 32 Districts across 7 States and 1 UT, is one of the fastest growing CGD entities amongst its peers, and is growing both organically and inorganically. Very soon Torrent Gas will make CNG and PNG available in Chennai, the only metro city where CNG and PNG are not available.

Chennai and Thiruvallur districts will have 30 CNG stations. Specially appreciating the speed at which Torrent Gas is setting up the CNG stations and creating CGD infrastructure in the country, Dharmendra Pradhan said, "This achievement of Torrent Gas is specially praiseworthy, as it has achieved the milestone of 100 CNG stations within a short span of less than two years and is worthy of emulation by others. Making Natural Gas available in upcountry regions, will encourage consumers to adopt this cleaner and cheaper fuel, thereby having a positive impact on the environment and benefiting the citizens at large."
